PAM BARNHILL

Pam Barnhill believes that you don't have to sacrifice relationships to homeschool strong. An award-winning educator and former journalist, she has a knack for breaking down big tasks into small, manageable steps and getting to the heart of the stories her listeners want to hear. Pam is the host of three popular homeschooling podcasts -- The Homeschool Snapshots Podcast, Your Morning Basket, and The Homeschool Solutions Show. She lives in the Deep South with her husband, three (mostly) awesome kids, and two slightly neurotic pugs.

ANN KARAKO

Ann is the (very) middle-aged mom of five who writes at Annie & Everything about calming the chaos of homeschool life. She says, "I don't do complicated!" and is known for her down-to-earth common sense about all things homeschool and the homeschool lifestyle. Having graduated four children (with one more to go), she has a heart for helping families choose to homeschool all the way through high school. To that end, she has written the ebook Cure the Fear of Homeschooling High School: How to Be Sure You're Not Missing Anything, and she admins the popular FB group called It's Not that Hard to Homeschool High School to give encouragement and support to moms of homeschooled teens. She and her family, including two dogs and three cats, live in rural Missouri.

DAWN GARRETT

Dawn Garrett lives in Ohio with her husband Jason and their three always-homeschooled children, ages 12, 11, and 9. In her homeschool, they learn about God and His cosmos by studying the seven liberal arts in order to know Him better, imitate Him and His ways, and share about Him with others. Her home blog – about books school and life – has been at ladydusk for 15 years. She is the author of the free ebook: I Am, I Can, I Ought, I Will: Charlotte Mason's Motto Explained for Upper Elementary Students and the Community Manager at pambarnhill.com.
